NOTES:

- The reading dimension is not scored for elicited narrative stories.
- The elements of coherence, clarity, and cohesion to be assessed are expressed in the grade-level standards W1-W4.
- Per the Louisiana Student Standards, in grades 9-12, narrative elements may include, outlining step-by-step procedures, creating one or more points of view, and constructing event models of what happened. This is in addition to the grades 6-8 narrative elements: establishing a context, situating events in a time and place, developing a point of view, and developing characters' motives, and the grades 3-5 narrative elements: establishing a situation; organizing a logical event sequence; describing scenes, objects, or people; developing characters' personalities; and using dialogue as appropriate. The elements to be assessed are expressed in the grade-level standard W3.
